LOCAL NEWS.

The Casino will be open to-morrow. "To Waikiki, of course," is the answer hackmen generally receive on Sundays.

A native suggests that a good place to raise mud turtles would be in the taro patches.

Several horseback parties are going out to-morrow. "Gallop apace ye lightly prancing steeds."

The Punahou base ball club will play a match game with one of the Public School clubs to-day.

It is reported that the stablemen intend giving prizes to all hackmen who drive a month without a mishap.

Mr. George B. Kalauakane, the oldest native lawyer on the Islands, died here last Thursday. He was 63 years of age.

The Fourth of July Committee met yesterday and transacted some special business. The report will be published Monday morning next.

The proper thing for the skating rinks would be to get up some public races for our private dudes. They don't attract half enough attention as it is.

The Fort-Street Church Young Peoples, Society of Christian Endeavor held a very pleasant social last night at the residence of Capt. Fuller on Kukui street.

Some of the night-hawks take naps, while waiting for the sun to come up, by sitting on the window-sills of Waterhouse's store and hanging their weary heads over the iron window fenders.

The newest rage in Honolulu is reported to be mustache parties. It is said that they will be organized by some of the girls. Their motto will be, "Don't kiss a mustache when its down."

There was a catch-me-if-you-can-and-you-may-have-one lawn party out on Beretania street the other night that was hugely enjoyed by every body present. Ice cream and cakes were served later in the evening.

In the Police Court yesterday four drunks deposited $26 for the general fund. Mr. Ah Ho paid $7.80 for an assault and battery and Mr. John Kaahani was sent up for a month for the same offense.

Pastor Cruzan will preach Sunday morning and evening, in Fort Street Church. Evening subject "The Historical Bonfire, or Tainted Mental Food"—a sermon for young people and their parents.

The regular Gospel and Praise Service will be held to-morrow afternoon at half-past six o'clock in the Y.M.C.A. Hall. All young men are especially invited to be present and bring a friend. These services are always made interesting and instructive.

The Russian man-of-war Massager may be expected in this port before long. She was ordered here in August last and will try to persuade the King not to sell the Hawaiian Islands for a song. The object of the visit is set forth in our editorial columns.

It is reported that Goodyear's Electric Circus, will bring an electric woman from the South Seas, who belongs to one of the Royal families there. Royalty with an electric spark in it will be something like a diamond in a brass setting.

The King's eight-oared boat-crew broke an oar on Thursday evening while spurring to catch the six-oared crew. Both crews were practicing off the Esplanade. Its a big muscle that breaks one of those oars. If the natives had as much grit as muscle, they would win the race.

Mr. R. Moore, machinist on King street, was busily engaged yesterday morning in opening the safe of the old Custom House building, to see what the contents were. It was a tedious job, and after he had succeeded in opening it, an old cow-hide whip was the only thing found.

It was currently reported on the street yesterday that Captain Tripp had been removed from the position held by him at Oahu Prison, and it is understood that he has been or will be offered the position of Harbor Master. It is further rumored that Captain Morse of the Alameda will take Captain Tripp's place.

Day before yesterday afternoon Billy Moore, hack, horse, passengers and all, were almost run over on Beretania street by a runaway horse attached to an express. Billy says he only saved himself by his lady passenger, who, happening to turn, saw the thing coming—otherwise a smash up would have occurred.

There will be a two mile race at the Yosefite Skating Rink to-night, as announced in our yesterday's issue, between the Devil and Mr. William Mullen. In this case, the old adage of "the devil take the hindmost," will be reversed as the Press devil generally takes the cake as well as all the "fat" he can steal when the foreman isn't looking.

The usual runaway occurred yesterday morning, near nine o'clock, on Nuuanu street. It was a hack and the whole affair was ended by the rig being overturned between Hotel and Beretania streets. The horse was pretty badly cut about the hinder legs and the usual crowd collected to give those who were unhitching the animal, the proper directions, etc.

Bethel Union Church services to-morrow as follows: Sunday school at 9:45 o'clock, B. F. Dillingham, superintendent. Services with preaching by Rev. E. C. Oggel, the pastor, at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Subject in the morning, "I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son Our Lord,"—the second sermon on the Apostles' creed. Evening theme, "In the Shadow of a Rock." All are cordially welcome.

The Royal Hawaiian Agricultural Society met last night pursuant to adjournment at the Hawaiian Hotel at eight o'clock with the Hon. Mr. Cleg-horn in the chair. The meeting adjourned about nine o'clock. But little business was transacted owing to a heated discussion which occupied most of the time between Mr. Jaeger and Mr. Kenyon, of Koolau. A large portion of the Chairman's time was taken up by calls to order.

The Royal Hawaiian Band will play the following programme at Emma Square this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock: Overture—Italian in Algier.....Rossini

Waltz—Alexandria (new).....Gungl

Concert on Monday evening at Emma Square.
Mr. A. T. Baker, a horse doctor and trainer, who has made several trips to Honolulu and came here last a short time ago, died suddenly about noon yesterday at Palama. The deceased had been the reputation of being a hard drinking man at times and for some time before his death had been drinking freely. About twelve o'clock yesterday he was taken with a convulsion and died. Dr. McKibbin who attended him is reported to have announced that the immediate cause of his death was heart disease.

The reason that slops are thrown from the houses on Nuuanu and other streets in the city by the Chinese and natives is alleged to be, that if they disposed of them inside the premises, under the present sanitary laws, that their places would soon be so full of filth that disease would be precipitated. These two classes of residents claim that the sun dries up the slops next morning and the filth is carried away during the week. It looks very much like self defense after all—bad as sanitary matters are.

A Japanese who started a peanut shop yesterday on Richard street is solving the currency question in the following manner: Soon after he opened shop yesterday a small boy went in and asked for five cents worth of peanuts and gave the Jap an Hawaiian quarter. The Jap immediately handed him back forty-five cents in change, smiled twice around his mouth and said something to the boy that sounded like "Ohio." The boy said he thought he was and promised to call again.

A Chinaman and a kanaka had a little race yesterday afternoon on Queen street. After two attempts they got a good start, but the Chinaman soon took the lead. The race was for the distance of a block and the wager was a poi feast. When the kanaka saw his wide-shoed brother was about to beat him he suddenly made a spurt, caught the Chinaman's queue and jerked the cestial back to the quarter pole. The Chinaman yelped with pain and gave up the race while the kanaka galloped down the home stretch and won the calabash.

They say that the Planters have put themselves into a political box with a spring lock in the lid; that some fair Hawaiian hula maidens are honored with a guard to keep them from "giving away" a new hula before the public exhibition, esse; that Hawaiian hack horses would rather run away than loaf in the shade; that the services of a minister will be required by a young Honolulu couple in about a fortnight to help them tie a bowlin knot through a plain gold ring; that the political seers have selected the candidates of the opposition and changed them as often as the Honolulu Boat Club has its senior crew; that nothing will be definitely settled in either case until the events come off; that the "glorious climate" of Hawaii discounts the "glorious climate" of California; that the Honolulu ladies "push on the reins" when they drive, because they become accustomed to urging their husbands in this way; that the reason some men "kick" about it is because they take it as a personal affront—don't you know; that the "bummer" and the "politician" are the same words in different languages; and that the average Hawaiian is incapable of appreciating a pun on words in the English language owing to the punipuni conditions of the foreign tongue—as it were.

Answers to Correspondents.

Letter Writer.—Yes, we agree with you that "ill-mannered insinuations as to motives are not generally deemed proper forms with which either to open or to continue a discussion," but think the dictum should have been applied to previous discussions. Circumstances alter cases however.

82 cents.—No. The Hawaiian dollar is worth just as much if found in the fish you speak of as if loafing in the Government Treasury. A few hundred years from now, however, one would probably be worth more for a dime museum in Australia or Spreckelsville.

Politician.—No—yes—that is, perhaps. Of course the labor discussion is like a pumpkin if you depend on telling when it is ripe by thumping it.

Lehua.—If you insist we will tell you the truth. The fact is that the Press is an independent newspaper and does not intend to abuse the honest opinions of any person unless they conflict with the interests of the people upon some political question.

The New York Cable Roads.

Wm. M. Everts, Everett P. Wheeler, Charles P. Shaw and Robert Sewell, the Commission appointed by the Supreme Court to examine witnesses concerning the practicability of the cable roads in New York, have met and made a report, which has yet to be confirmed by the Court at the general term. The proposed plan comprises seventy routes, fifteen elevated and fifty-five surface roads, and there are to be sixteen cross-town roads. They are to be run, commencing at Maicon Lane and Courtland, and running thence to Two Hundredth street. The San Francisco system of Hallidie's patent is to be exclusively used, and the contractors expect to be able to build a block a day. The consent of thirty miles of property-owners has already been obtained. The Commissioners say, owing to the fact that infringements on patent rights have not been prosecuted on the Pacific Coast, the value of patents has been injured. About a hundred New Yorkers are interested in the scheme. Among the engineers who testified before the Commissioners were Messrs. Hallidie, and J. W. Redway of California. It is proposed to transfer passengers on all the routes free of charge, the fare to be five cents, except between the hours of one and four in the morning, when it will be six cents. One branch of the road is already in operation on Tenth avenue.
